place at 11:30 a.m. Several other property damage accidents, including two car-deer mishaps were reported.

A car driven by John Charles Zawilinski, 23, of 5283 Schwegler Rd., Cass City, struck and killed a deer on Deckerville Road near the Colwood Road intersection early Saturday morning.

Caro State Police said Zawilinski could not swerve to miss the animal due to a bridge abutment nearby. Zawilinski was not injured. The accident took place at 3:15 a.m.

Oscar George Chantiny, 39, of 4074 Hurds Corner Rd., Kingston, escaped injury when the car he was driving struck a deer on M-46, six miles northwest of Vassar, Friday morning.

Caro State Police said the deer ran from the south side of the road into the path of the vehicle. The accident took place at 7:10 a.m.

Guy J. Howard, 18, Cass City, escaped serious injury Sunday afternoon when the car he was driving went out of control and landed in a ditch on Elkton Road at Rescue Road.

Howard told Huron County Sheriff's deputies he was northbound and attempted to steer clear of another northbound auto which had stopped to make a left turn.

Howard was not hospitalized. The accident took place at 12:45 p.m.

Two drivers escaped injury in a property damage accident that took place Monday on Cedar Drive near Doerr Road in Cass City.

Tuscola County Sheriff's

officers said a car driven by Laurelei Ann Wright, 19, of 6196 Cedar Dr., was backing from a driveway and collided with an eastbound auto driven by Suzanne Lorraine Custer, 25, of 6268 Cedar Dr.

Ms. Wright told officers she did not see the Custer vehicle approaching.

No ticket was issued. The accident took place at 3:45 p.m.

Cass City Police reported a minor hit-and-run accident Saturday in the south alley behind Main Street.

Linda Roberts of 6424 Main St., reported her vehicle was struck in the left rear fender sometime between 10:30 and 11:00 p.m.

Police said they have no suspects.
